Webinar Report for
NEP 2009/2020: Open Standards For Interactive Computing

The Department of Computer Science and Applications, Panjab University Chandigarh organized a webinar on 'NEP 2009/2020: Open Standards For Interactive Computing' on October 15th, 2020.

The occasion was graced by Prof. V.R. Sinha, Dean Research and officiating Dean of University Instructions, Panjab University Chandigarh , Prof. Maninder Singh, Head of Computer Science and Engineering Department and Center of Information and Technology Management (CITM), Thapar Institute of Engineering and Technology, Patiala(Guest Speaker), Dr. Rohini Sharma, Chairperson, DCSA, Panjab University, Chandigarh and was coordinated by Prof. Sonal Chawla, DCSA, Panjab University, Chandigarh.

The session was overwhelmingly attended by DCSA students, research scholars, faculty from other departments and colleges too.

Prof. V.R Sinha highlighted upon the mandate of NEP 2020 which is to make the education system holistic and multidisciplinary and encourage the use of technology for effective teaching.

He dwelled upon the changes proposed by the policy which were :- Multiple entry and Multiple exits, abolishment of M.Phil, autonomy which could be given to private colleges, one regulator for higher education and parity between the government and private colleges.

He also threw light upon some of the challenges such as the problem with wet labs for subjects like chemistry and physics which requires contact. Its solution could be development of virtual labs.

Prof. Maninder Singh, the guest speaker, highlighted the importance of quality education which can only be achieved through a strong framework and design. Various important points of the NEP like adopting a 5+3+3+4 model for school education starting at age 3, which recognises the primacy of the formative years from ages 3 to 8 in shaping the child's future.

He also focused on 2009’s Right to Education in the Constitution of India which provided free and compulsory education for all children in the age group of six to fourteen years as a Fundamental Right.

He emphasised on quality education and virtual labs and the change in the overall spending of the government from 3% of the GDP to proposed 6% of the GDP on the national education, and the key aspect of measurement such as international rankings and research aspect.

He vividly explained the importance of Google Colaboratory and Project Jupyter(Project Jupyter exists to develop open-source software, open-standards, and services for interactive computing across dozens of programming languages) through interactive examples and great explanation.

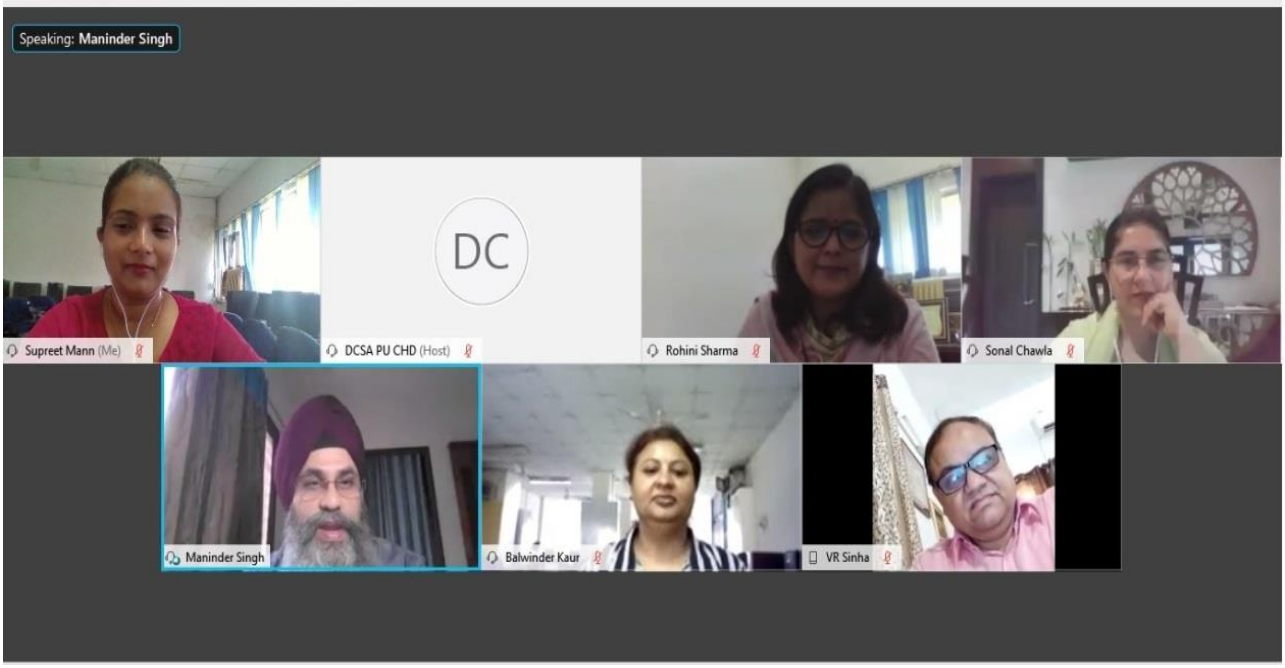

To summarize, the session was very interactive, enriching and an amalgamation of thoughts and expertise of Prof. Maninder Singh, Thapar Institute of Engineering and Technology, Patiala, and all the topics were profoundly presented and explained along with the apparent doubts being unraveled.
